

Luke 19:2-8

Jesus looked up in a sycamore tree and found someone who wanted to see him. This person was rich, but he still saw a need to come to Jesus. He was a sinner, but he repented from his sin and was willing to repay those he had cheated four times the amount he had taken from them. Connect the dots to see this person in the sycamore tree and unscramble the letters in the box to spell his name.

