

MUDDLED FACTS!

The man who was rescued by the Good Samaritan begins to tell his story to the inn-keeper. But his thoughts are still muddled. Read Luke 10:30-37 and correct the six mistakes in what he said.

"I was going from Jerusalem to Nazareth and was attacked by thieves. As I lay dying by the roadside, 2 merchants came along and talked to me. Then a traveling Egyptian showed kindness to me: he treated my wounds with oil and honey, set me on his animal and brought me to this inn. I hear he has paid 10 talents for my stay here already."
