

MUDDLED FACTS!

The man who was rescued by the Good Samaritan begins to tell his story to the inn-keeper. But his thoughts are still muddled. Read Luke 10:30-37 and correct the six mistakes in what he said.

"I was going from Jerusalem to Jericho and was attacked by thieves. As I lay dying by the roadside, a Levite and a Priest passed by on the other side. Then a travelling Samaritan showed kindness to me: he treated my wounds with oil and wine, set me on his animal and brought me to this inn I hear he has paid two pence for my stay here already."
