— And he answered, Fear not: for they that be with us are more than they that be with them.

— And the man of God sent unto the king of Israel, saying, Be ware that thou pass not such a place; for thither the Syrians are come down.

— And he answered, Thou shalt not smite them: wouldest thou smite those whom thou hast taken captive with thy sword and with thy bow? set bread and water before them, that they may eat and drink, and go to their master.

— Then the king of Syria warred against Israel, and took counsel with his servants, saying, In such and such a place shall be my camp.

— Therefore sent he thither horses, and chariots, and a great host: and they came by night, and compassed the city about.

— And he prepared great provision for them: and when they had eaten and drunk, he sent them away, and they went to their master. So the bands of Syria came no more into the land of Israel.

— And when they came down to him, Elisha prayed unto the Lord, and said, Smite this people, I pray thee, with blindness. And he smote them with blindness according to the word of Elisha.
